

Can you correct Mr Whoops' spelling mistakes?

Dear Sir,

I respectfully request the oppertunity to interview for the availible position of secritary advertised on the company website. Acording to the job description online, I have the reluvant experience required and would appreshiate any availuble opening to discuss my experience.

I am very deturmined and I am eager to meet with you at your convenyance.

Sincerly, Mr Whoops

Can you correct Mr Whoops' spelling mistakes?

Dear Fran,

I've had such a disasterous time on your yocht. Unfortunately, I lost your scuba equipmint while exploring the anchant underwater ruins near Crete.

Somewhat flustered, I fell overboard and my neighbor had to rescue me. I was so embarrassed and ended up with a humongous bruse on my stomak. I'm struggling to understand the langwage here and I am so lost. Help! I'm desparate.

Your sincer friend, Mr Whoops

Can you correct Mr Whoops' spelling mistakes?

Dear Readers,

I have just visited a marvelous resturant with a variuty of foods on the menu. Time Well Spent is the latest restirant on the high street and I was fortunate enough to have spent an above averigde afternoon of leshure in a relaxing envirinment. My food was delicious! It was not too hot or cold but just the right tempurature. The chef left me nothing to criticize. I garantee a tasty meal for a bargan if you visit today.

Yours truly, Mr Whoops

Can you correct Mr Whoops' spelling mistakes?

Dear John,

I was wondering if I might perswade you to enter our comunity amachur baking compitition please. I absolutely enjoyed that excelent roasted vegetable quiche you made last week and would thoroughly recomend you to the village comitee.

Just sign and send the atached form immedately.

Your friend, Mr Whoops

Can you correct Mr Whoops' punctuation mistakes?

Dear Mum!

I had such an amazing holiday in Crete.

It didn't start off well, but I ended up having a fabulous time, I tried a variety of different foods - moussaka, stifado and souvlaki? I even found a few recipes for you to try.

I also saw some amazing ancient ruin's and a life size statue of Zeus. I miss you I'll be home on Thursday.

Love" Mr Whoops

Can you correct Mr Whoops' punctuation mistakes?

Dear Dad,

I got the job? Im so excited I cant wait to start. They said I was exactly what the company needed intelligent, friendly and responsible. My training for the full time position will begin on Friday, and last two weeks.

I'll be in charge of communications, public relations and filing. I can't wait,

Your son. Mr Whoops

Can you correct Mr Whoops' punctuation and capitalisation mistakes?

Dear Mr Smiles

I really enjoyed your party last night thank you so much for the invite Im afraid I left a few things at your house and I was wondering if I might have them back I seem to have lost a few items from my kitchen my casserole dish, my punch bowl and my favourite spatula if you could have a look for these i would really appreciate it thank you

Yours truly Mr Whoops

Can you correct Mr Whoops' punctuation and capitalisation mistakes?

Dear Sally,

You won't believe it? John won our amateur baking contest, He made the most amazing cake Ive ever seen. I couldnt believe the judges reactions when they tasted it"they were all smiles.

He made a three-tiered cake (with lemon, lavender and elderflower that was scrumptious! John's so talented? Ill send you photos later

Your friend, Mr Whoops

Can you help Mr Whoops solve these clues?

to be aware or awake cious

intending to do harm cious

of great value cious

having a cautious distrust cious

highly pleasant to the taste cious

Can you help Mr Whoops solve these clues?

the ability to wait nicely ence

proof ence

respectfulness of the rules ence

belief in oneself ence

harmlessness ence

Can you help Mr Whoops solve these clues?

cute and charming able suitable or fitting able expensive able

well thought out, sensible ... able dependable able

Can you help Mr Whoops solve these clues?

purchased or paid for ought

a notion or idea ought nothing or zero ought carried or took ought struggled or argued ought

Can you help Mr Whoops?

He has muddled up the spelling of three modal verbs into one large word. Rearrange the letters to spell all three of them correctly.

ulsodhlnshacal

Challenge: Can you use each of them in a sentence?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

He has muddled up the spelling of three modal verbs into one large word. Rearrange the letters to spell all three of them correctly.

mneolutcudsed

Challenge: Can you use each of them in a sentence?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

He has muddled up the spelling of three modal verbs into one large word. Rearrange the letters to spell all three of them correctly.

ygwimlhatmli

Challenge: Can you use each of them in a sentence?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

He has muddled up the spelling of three modal verbs into one large word. Rearrange the letters to spell all three of them correctly.

ocdulnowuldac

Challenge: Can you use each of them in a sentence?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in simple past tense. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in past perfect tense.

I swam around the outdoor pool for thirty minutes, even though it was cold.

Mr Whoops wrote a letter to his friend Sally.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in past perfect tense?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in simple past tense. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in past perfect tense.

My best friend Mr Whoops baked a cake with his grandmother last Saturday afternoon.

Without a moment's hesitation, the little boy jumped into the pool of colourful balls.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in past perfect tense?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in simple past tense. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in past perfect tense.

Unfortunately, she broke her mother's favourite vase by running carelessly through the house.

Mr Whoops ran down the road after the speedy postal worker.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in past perfect tense?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in simple past tense. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in past perfect tense.

This morning, my neighbour Mr Whoops drove me to school in his shiny, new car.

The young ballet dancer leapt across the polished stage.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in past perfect tense?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in simple present tense. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in present progressive tense.

Mr Whoops sings a variety of lovely traditional carols at Christmas.

My clever puppy catches a small tennis ball quite easily.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in present progressive tense?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in simple present tense. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in present progressive tense.

Our funny cousin, Mr Whoops, enjoys going to the cinema to see family comedies.

Her mother dislikes her new haircut.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in present progressive tense?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in simple present tense. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in present progressive tense.

Mr Whoops carries the fresh groceries into the house one bag at a time.

Her mobile phone rings loudly at the most inappropriate times.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in present progressive tense?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in simple present tense. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in present progressive tense.

It rains so much in our little village that the high street is constantly flooded.

My outdoor plants grow about a centimetre a week in the summer.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in present progressive tense?

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in an active voice. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in a passive voice.

JJ ate two bowls of cereal and a piece of fruit at breakfast.

Sharon changed the toner in the school printer.

The hotel staff cleaned the entire ballroom.

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in an active voice. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in a passive voice.

I will clean the fish tank every Sunday.

A forest fire destroyed the whole village.

Rachel will bake four dozen cupcakes for the party.

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in an active voice. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in a passive voice.

Mark watched the entire TV series in one day.

We are going to eat pizza tonight.

Katie painted the entire flat.

Can you help Mr Whoops?

Mr Whoops has written these sentences in an active voice. Help him rewrite each of these sentences in a passive voice.

The science class visited the planetarium.

The examiner will give you instructions.

The Browns remodelled the house.

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

Dear Sir,

I respectfully request the opportunity to interview for the available position of secretary advertised on the company website. According to the job description online, I have the relevant experience required and would appreciate any available opening to discuss my experience.

I am very determined and I am eager to meet with you at your convenience.

Sincerely, Mr Whoops

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

Dear Fran,

I've had such a disastrous time on your yacht.

Unfortunately, I lost your scuba equipment while exploring the ancient underwater ruins near Crete.

Somewhat flustered, I fell overboard and my neighbour had to rescue me. I was so embarrassed and ended up with a humongous bruise on my stomach. I'm struggling to understand the language here and I am so lost. Help! I'm desperate.

Your sincere friend, Mr Whoops

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

Dear Readers,

I have just visited a marvellous restaurant with a variety of foods on the menu. Time Well Spent is the latest restaurant on the high street and I was fortunate enough to have spent an above average afternoon of leisure in a relaxing environment. My food was delicious! It was not too hot or cold but just the right temperature. The chef left me nothing to criticise. I guarantee a tasty meal for a bargain if you visit today.

Yours truly, Mr Whoops

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

Dear John,

I was wondering if I might persuade you to enter our community amateur baking competition please. I absolutely enjoyed that excellent roasted vegetable quiche you made last week and would thoroughly recommend you to the village committee.

Just sign and send the attached form immediately.

Your friend, Mr Whoops

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

Dear Mum,

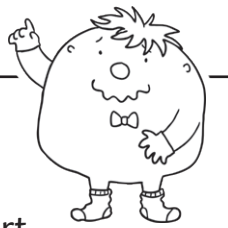

I had such an amazing holiday in Crete.

It didn't start off well but I ended up having a fabulous time. I tried a variety of different foods: moussaka, stifado and souvlaki. I even found a few recipes for you to try!

I also saw some amazing ancient ruins and a life-size statue of Zeus. I miss you; I'll be home on Thursday.

Love, Mr Whoops

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

Dear Dad,

I got the job! I'm so excited; I can't wait to start. They said I was exactly what the company needed: intelligent, friendly and responsible. My training for the full-time position will begin on Friday and last two weeks.

I'll be in charge of communications, public relations and filing. I can't wait!

Your son, Mr Whoops

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

Dear Mr Smiles,

I really enjoyed your party last night. Thank you so much for the invite. I'm afraid I left a few things at your house and I was wondering if I might have them back. I seem to have lost a few items from my kitchen: my casserole dish, my punch bowl and my favourite spatula. If you could have a look for these, I would really appreciate it. Thank you.

Yours truly, Mr Whoops

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

Dear Sally,

You won't believe it! John won our amateur baking contest. He made the most amazing cake I've ever seen. I couldn't believe the judges' reactions when they tasted it - they were all smiles.

He made a three-tiered cake (with lemon, lavender and elderflower) that was scrumptious! John's so talented. I'll send you photos later.

Your friend, Mr Whoops

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

to be aware or awake c o n s cious

intending to do harm m a l i cious

of great value p r e cious

having a cautious distrust s u s p i cious

highly pleasant to the taste d e l i cious

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

the ability to wait nicely p a t i ence

proof e v i d ence

respectfulness of the rules o b e d i ence

belief in oneself c o n f i d ence

harmlessness i n n o c ence

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

cute and charming a d o r able suitable or fitting a p p l i c able expensive v a l u able well thought out, sensible ... r e a s o n able dependable r e l i able

Mr Whoops Busy Box Challenge Cards Answers

purchased or paid for b ought

a notion or idea t h ought nothing or zero n ought carried or took b r ought struggled or argued f ought

ulsodhlnshacal

should shall

can

Challenge: Can you use each of them in a sentence?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

You should brush your teeth twice a day.

mneolutcudsed

could must need

Challenge: Can you use each of them in a sentence?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

We must go grocery shopping before the party.

ygwimlhatmli

might may will

Challenge: Can you use each of them in a sentence?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

We may go out and eat pizza after the movie.

ocdulnowuldac

would

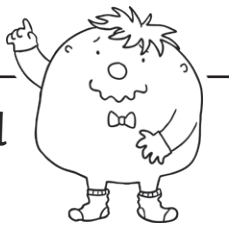

could

can

Challenge: Can you use each of them in a sentence?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

He would buy a new TV if he could afford it.

I had swum around the outdoor pool for 30 minutes, even though it was cold.

Mr Whoops had written a letter to his friend Sally.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in the past perfect tense?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

I had thought of a nice gift for my friend's birthday.

My best friend Mr Whoops had baked a cake with his grandmother last Saturday afternoon.

Without a moment's hesitation, the little boy had jumped into the pool of colourful balls.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in the past perfect tense?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

Mr Whoops had cooked a delicious meal for his friend Fran.

Unfortunately, she had broken her mother's favourite vase by running carelessly through the house.

Mr Whoops had run down the road after the speedy postal worker.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in the past perfect tense?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

We had jumped on the first train home.

This morning, my neighbour Mr Whoops had driven me to school in his shiny, new car.

The young ballet dancer had leapt across the polished stage.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in the past perfect tense?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

My grandmother had visited us for two wonderful weeks.

Mr Whoops is singing a variety of lovely traditional carols at Christmas.

My clever puppy is catching a small tennis ball quite easily.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in the present progressive tense?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

My grandmother is snacking on some popcorn.

Our funny cousin, Mr Whoops, is enjoying going to the cinema to see family comedies.

Her mother is disliking her new haircut.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in the present progressive tense?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

Her friend is swinging on the tree branch.

Mr Whoops is carrying the fresh groceries into the house one bag at a time.

Her mobile phone is ringing loudly at the most inappropriate times.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in the present progressive tense?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

The old man is walking slowly up the hill.

It is raining so much in our little village that the high street is constantly flooded.

My outdoor plants are growing about a centimetre a week in the summer.

Challenge: Can you write your own sentence in the present progressive tense?

Accept suitable responses, such as:

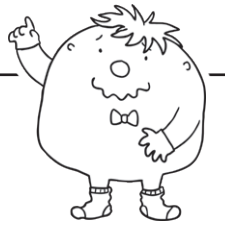

Izzy the cat is patting at the mouse in the hole.

Two bowls of cereal and a piece of fruit were eaten by JJ at breakfast.

The toner in the school printer was changed by Sharon.

The entire ballroom was cleaned by the hotel staff.

The fish tank will be cleaned every Sunday by me.

The whole village was destroyed by a forest fire.

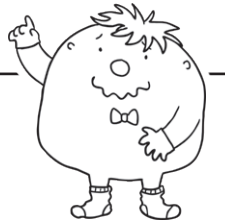

Four dozen cupcakes for the party will be baked by Rachel.

The entire series was watched by Mark in one day.

Pizza is going to be eaten by us tonight.

The entire flat was painted by Katie.

The planetarium was visited by the science class.

Instructions will be given to you by the examiner.

The house was remodelled by the Browns.