

Yo, Ho, Ho!

8 There once was a young boy called Fred,
16 Who wore a strange hat on his head,
20 Some people asked, "Why?"
25 And out came a sigh,
31 "Because I'm a pirate!" he said.
39 The young boy, whose last name was Barrett,
46 Searched for gold that was 24 carat,
53 He wore a red and white tee,
59 And a patch on his knee,
67 On his shoulder, there sat a green parrot.
73 He boarded a tall pirate ship,
82 And set off round the world on a trip,
86 The pirates were scary,
90 All stinky and hairy,
97 Never using the sea for a dip!

Questions

1. What is the full name of the boy in this poem?

2. What does going for a dip mean?

3. Why do think that the pirates had never used the sea for a dip?

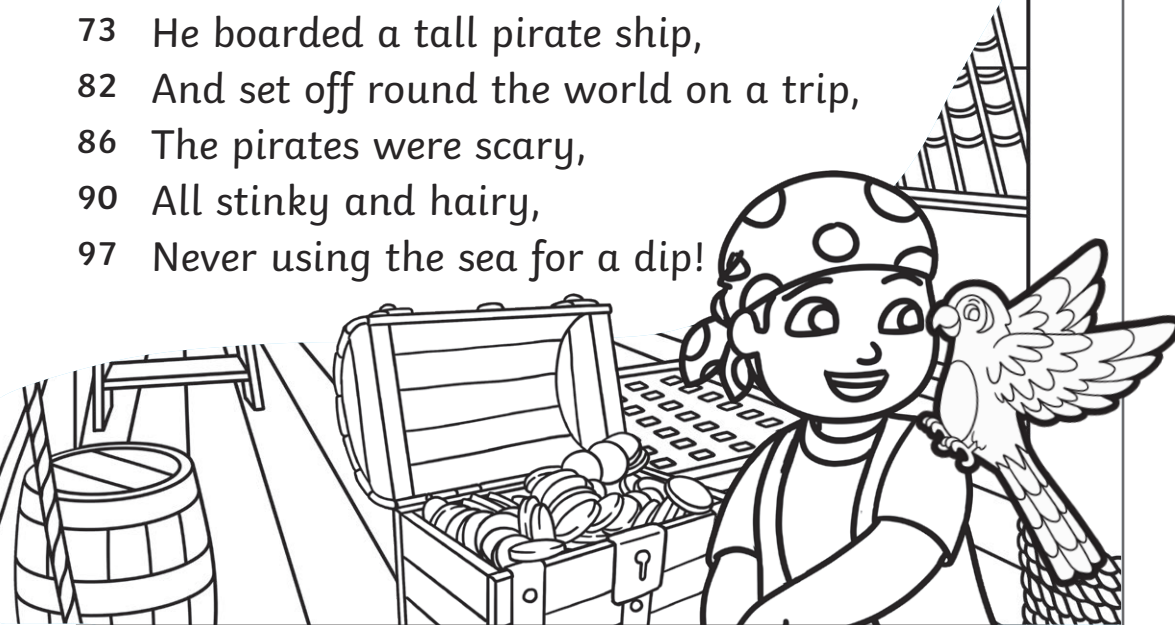

4. What adventures do you think the pirates had on their trip around the world?

Yo, Ho, Ho!

8 There once was a young boy called Fred,
16 Who wore a strange hat on his head,
20 Some people asked, "Why?"
25 And out came a sigh,
31 "Because I'm a pirate!" he said.

39 The young boy, whose last name was Barrett,
46 Searched for gold that was 24 carat,
53 He wore a red and white tee,
59 And a patch on his knee,
67 On his shoulder, there sat a green parrot.

73 He boarded a tall pirate ship,
82 And set off round the world on a trip,
86 The pirates were scary,
90 All stinky and hairy,
97 Never using the sea for a dip!

Answers

1. What is the full name of the boy in this poem?

The full name of the character in this poem is Fred Barrett.

2. What does going for a dip mean?

Going for a dip means to go for a swim.

3. Why do think that the pirates had never used the sea for a dip?

Pupils' own responses, such as: I think that the pirates never used the sea for a dip because they were afraid of sharks.

4. What adventures do you think the pirates had on their trip around the world?

Pupils' own responses, such as: I think that the pirates sailed to an island to search and dig for buried treasure.