

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Bill and Molly were looking for a special/spetial present for their gran.

The emporium didn't sell essencial/essential items such as food.

Bill wouldn't have been surprised to see an artificial/artifitial limb for sale in the emporium.

2. Insert a semicolon in the correct place in the sentence below.

He picked it up it was surprisingly heavy.

3. Which sentence contains a relative clause?

Tick
one.

Bill sighed with relief, just like he did every Tuesday afternoon when their writing lesson finished.

Bill climbed onto the back of Molly's bike.

He wandered over, dodging a rusty wheelbarrow filled with even rustier tools.

He checked out the worn studs, replaced the boot and wandered further into the shop.

4. Insert a comma and a dash in the correct places in the sentence below.

After wandering down a side street the children entered the emporium a shop packed with antiques.

5. Add a suitable expanded noun phrase to complete the sentence below.

Bill picked up the _____ pen.