

Geography Plus: Beside the Sea

Activity sheet 1: Seaside people

Maria works in the pub and is also a lifeboat woman so when there are emergencies at sea she has to rush to the lifeboat station from wherever she is to help with lifesaving. She's very busy in the summer.

Curtis is a fisherman who is out at sea for 24 hours at a time catching velvet swimming crabs for sale to customers in Spain.

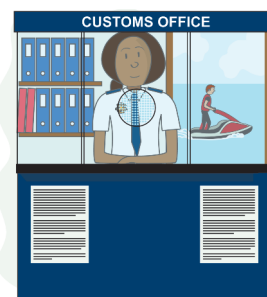

During the week Ivy works part-time in a shop, but at weekends she sells burgers from a van on the seafront to hungry surfers.

Solomon and Jonty are bankers. They work in London and travel to their second home at the weekend to relax and walk their dog Brucie on the beach.

George and Mildred moved here five years ago, after they retired. They enjoy birdwatching and walking.

Ruby is a customs officer who works at the docks checking what goods are being brought in. In her spare time she likes to jet ski.

Wayne owns the local dive centre. He teaches and looks after visitors who want to explore underwater life.

Mrs Golopski teaches year 5 children in the local school. She sometimes sees them playing football on the beach.

Rob runs the local fairground between Easter and Halloween. During the winter he works as an artist, collecting beach materials and creating sculptures that are sold in a local craft shop.
