Apostrophes

Apostrophes to mark where letters are missing in spelling and to mark singular possession in nouns.

Rewrite these sentences using apostrophes where something belongs to someone, e.g. Elia's toy.

The dog belonging to Lily would not run.

The ball belonging to James got stuck in the tree.

The mother of the children got a ladder.

The dog that belonged to Lily looked at the ball which belonged to James.

Challenge: Write sentences to go with these pictures using an apostrophe to show possession.
