

Thoughts, Feelings, and Behaviours

Look at the situations below and decide how someone in each situation might feel, what they might think, and how they might behave.

	Feelings How would their face look and what sort of feelings would they experience?	Thoughts What might they be thinking?	Behaviour How might a person in this situation behave, with or without words?
 James came second in the race but wanted to come first.
 Sam does not live near his friends at his new house and he is watching other children play together.
 Natalia wants to spend time with her Mum but her new baby sister is getting all the attention.			