Our big news is that at the start of term we were awarded the Gold History Quality Mark again

We took part in the Southport Heritage Weekends in September by sharing our school history log book display in our church

Black History Month – these photos are of some of our wonderful History Ambassadors leading a session about this

Here are photos of pupils researching the school history from the 1930s

Pupil suggestions -

Visit our town war memorial – the monument

Preston – The Harris Museum has just re-opened

History helps us appreciate our lives now – be inspired by the people of the past – respect other cultures – celebrate diversity – learn detective skills – and more!
